CORAM : R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED : 8th December, 2004.

P.C.

1. Heard the learned advocates for the parties.
Perused the records.

2. The grievance of the petitioners remains to be satisfied in the matter relating to the amount of Rs.2,07,712/-. It is also stated by the learned advocate for the petitioners that in addition to the said amount, some more amount towards the outgoing charges of the society is to be paid by the respondents. However, the petitioners are not in a position to quantify the said amount. The learned advocate for the respondents has filed the undertaking by the respondents stating that the balance sum of Rs.2,07,712/- which is due and payable to the petitioners would be paid within a period of six weeks from today. While accepting the said undertaking and leaving it to the parties to arrive at an appropriate understanding about any further amount due and payable on account of the outgoing charges of the society, as has been contended on behalf of the petitioners, and leaving the parties to sort out the said dispute in accordance with the provisions of law, nothing further is required to be done in the present Petition.

3. In the circumstances, the undertaking given by the respondents regarding payment of Rs.2,07,712/- within a period of six weeks from today is hereby accepted and while accepting the said undertaking, the petition is disposed of.
